

Intro (JBM111):

You completely believe I will not be able to figure out how to stop your evil act you are committing. You are wrong. That is your choice you are making. Back the fuck up before I tear you up from limb to limb, and drain out your blood by a metal drain on the floor.

My full naturally born set of black magic abilities does the talking in certain situations depending on what kind of complete negativity I am dealing with. I only use them for completely positive purposes.

Verse 1 (JBM111):

Running, running, running, running, I am killing all of the evil.

Being quicker than shit while also staying completely unaffected while they are always being slower than a computers operating system that froze.

Them fake gangstas are telling more lies than a person who is completely broke, gets high on completely illegal variants of marijuana, and drinks all of the time for maximum depression relief.

They are completely struggling with not being able to get the love of their life while stealing all of the completely positive peoples personal info, email address, bank account info, social security number, currency, medical insurance shit, and everything else
they have to help themselves stay off the streets.

I always act like I am struggling with depression, spiritual energy, financial stuff, and completely fake ideas to keep throwing them off.

Never giving up while I am fighting it all off that takes no thinking to do, and laughing at those people when all of it is took care of during the twenty four hour period is what always makes my day as the main thing.

Hook (Japanese Bloody Massacre):

You thought I will not be able to figure out what you are doing out of complete negativity, and not being able to figure out a solution.

You do not know me like you always say you do.

All of this makes you look dumb.

Now you are going to try to move on from it laughing at me, turn your head like you are being smarter than me, and completely believe it is not going to affect your reputation.

You want to see what my full naturally born set of black magic abilities can do for all of its completely legal purposes?

Leave me alone completely retarded motherfucker, go get a real life, do not tell lies about me, and stop comparing it to mine completely negative motherfucker.

(Demon Killer.)

Verse 2:

Do not be completely negative to me no matter if you know me, or not. You will completely regret having your life impacted in a such way, or two, or having it ended after I kindly asked you to stop.

You are only impacting yourself by trying to get away from it, and have GOD, Jesus, the angels, and archangels praise you for it. They will not allow you to go to heaven depending on what you did, and if you can make up for it.

They always call me an asshole, a completely horny motherfucker, completely disrespectful, a kid, and a dumbass for not knowing anything about life as their only responses for always completely believing they always know more of everything as Google Gemini knockoffs.

Y'all always get completely out of touch with reality, and keep lying about everything that comes out of your brain. (frontal cortex)

They always get in trouble with law enforcement, get divorced by their husbands, their wives, lose a legal dispute, their boyfriends, their job, or develop a bad health condition depending on what it is will always do it's own damage.

All that I am doing is acting, and following own plans to keep proving how dumb they always are.

Age does not matter with y'all's wisdom, and how famous you are, or not. (if you do get famous from it)

I am the last Japanese German American oldschool Los Angeles blood gang variant member that is still alive, and will never stop doing what I always do professionally.

I always belong in the ATL cause I grew up in it, know everything that comes to mind about it, and still live in it at the age of twenty five.

Verse 3 (seriously quick verse):

When you do completely stupid shit, and say completely stupid shit that is always completely negative will completely destroy your entire reputation, and will completely force your mind to go in complete panic mode to build it back up.

Always be completely positive to me no matter if you know me in person, or not.
